

J.N. WHITE DESIGNS

ACCOMPLISHED CUSTOM PRINTERS SINCE 1960

Promotion Decoration

J.N. White Designs offers advanced promotional and decorative printing for decals and labels used in consumer-oriented product applications. A high-tech, high quality finished appearance is essential when building a consistent and effective brand identity.

Using Flexcon, GE, and 3M materials and adhesives, J.N. White Designs' sophisticated electrostatic offset process combined with the traditional screen printing process results in outstanding color intensity and durability. Our internal capabilities save the customer time and money by streamlining the design process from prototypes to production.

Involve J.N. White Designs early with your product identification needs. Our knowledgeable sales staff will help you design a domed label, decal, or graphic overlay that will allow you to differentiate yourself from your competition.
